

For the Herald.
EMERALD HOUSE, KEENE, N. H.
Mr. Editor.—In passing through the beautiful city of Keene, N. H., on my way to Boston, last week, I found there was a good public house in the village, kept on strict temperance principles, by W. G. Colston, and I felt it my duty, as every temperance man should, to patronize this house.
Accordingly directed the stage driver to take me to the Temperance House, and since that time have always stopped there, and can truly say that I never found better in any public house whatever. I would therefore recommend to all travellers, passing through Keene, to call at the Emerald House, although it may be a little trouble to find it, particularly if you travel in the stage; as all the drivers that say seem to be interested for the Alcohol House.

By inserting the above in your paper you will do me a favor on a FRIEND OF TEMPERANCE.
[We cheerfully give the 'Friend of Temperance' place in our columns, and would add our testimony in favor of the Emerald House. We were travelling through Keene, last summer, and called at this house, where we found every thing desirable for the comfort of a weary traveller. The table was the best, the rooms spacious and well furnished, the beds clean, and the servants attentive, and moreover all our horse was well taken care of—which in our opinion is a great desideratum.—Ed.]

By the arrival of the Steamship Britannia at Boston, on Saturday, 8 o'clock, p. m., we have news of days later from Europe—of a highly interesting nature.

ARREST OF O'CONNELL AND EIGHT OTHER REPELERS.

The Government have at length taken active measures to suppress the Irish agitation by arresting O'Connell and others, and sending over the 34th and 97th Regiments to keep the peace.
The Lord lieutenants on arriving at the capital convened the Privy councillors and agreed upon proclamation which was issued, commanding the people of Ireland to abstain from holding meetings and all other movements calculated to excite dissent and disaffection in the minds of Her majesty's subjects, and enjoined upon the magistrates and officers of Government to enforce obedience to the established laws &c. &c.

Mr. O'Connell and eight others were arrested Oct. 14, and gave bail for their appearance at the Court of the James Bench for trial, after which the following address was issued:

TO THE PEOPLE OF IRELAND.

Beloved Fellow Countrymen: I announce to you that which you will hear from other quarters, namely, that I have this day given bail to answer to a charge of conspiracy and other misdemeanors, the first day of next term. I make this announcement in order to conjure the people, one and all, to observe the strictest and most perfect tranquility. Any attempt to disturb the public peace may be most disastrous—certainly, would be criminal and mischievous.

Attend, then, beloved countrymen, to me.
Be not tempted by anybody to break the peace, to violate the law, or to be guilty of any tumult or disturbance. The slightest crime against the law or the public peace may ruin our beautiful and otherwise triumphant cause.

If you will, during this crisis, follow my advice, and act as I entreat you to do, patiently, quietly, and legally, I think I can pledge myself to you, that the period is not far distant when our reverend sovereign will open the Irish Parliament in College Green.

Every attempt of our enemies to disturb the progress of Repeal hitherto has had a direct contrary effect. This attempt will also fail, if it be not resisted by any misconduct on the part of the people.

Be tranquil, then, and we shall be triumphant.
I have the honor to be, your ever faithful servant.
DAN'L O'CONNELL.

Merrion Sq'r, Oct. 14, 1843.

At a repeal meeting on the 9th Oct. Mr. O.
Connell stated his future plans, by saying, the proclamation would not alter his course of conduct in relation to the great subject of repeal, but meetings must be held in every parish of Ireland, to express their grievances and petition Parliament to restore to them their national legislature.
But at the same time exhorting the people to break no law, and maintain good order in all their as-semblies together. At the same time he declared Government were now doing more for the agitation of repeal than he ever did. At the close of the meeting he brought forward the following resolution which was adopted by tumultuous cheering.

That whilst we repeat to the people of Ireland our conviction that "whoever commits a crime gives strength to the enemy," and while we pledge them and ourselves to a perfect obedience to the law, we at the same time avow before the inhabitants of the civilized world, that we never will desist from the legal and constitutional pursuit of the Repeal of the Union, until an Irish Parliament is in College Green again.

During the proceedings of this meeting several pounds of money amounting to over one thousand pounds were handed in as 'proclamation money.' And among the rest a letter from New Jersey, U.
S. containing twenty pounds, which was received with loud cheering.

He then said some had imagined that the repeal agitation would now diminish, but never were the people of Ireland more determined than at present to persevere; and he implored them to abstain from excitement and intemperance, and success was inevitable.

Important News from China. The treaty concluded last year between the Chinese commissioners and the British plenipotentiary has been fully ratified by the Emperor, granting a tariff of a liberal character which cannot be altered. By the proclamation of the Imperial commissioner most of the ports are open for trade from all nations.

ELECTION in the State of New York took place on Tuesday, and has been a warmly contested one. We hope the smoke will get cleared away so that the result will be known by the time that next paper is issued.

Fire in Rochester. A destructive fire broke out in Rochester, N. Y., on Friday morning at 2 o'clock, laying in one heap of ruins twenty-five buildings in South St. Paul street, and the destruction of property said to be very great.

The Hibernia, Captain Jenkins, left Boston at 3 o'clock, on Wednesday 1st inst, for Halifax and Liverpool. She has 32 passengers. Her mailbags contain upwards of 17,000 letters, and at least two Express wagon loads of newspapers and magazines.

The examination of young Fasset has closed—Mr. Justice Bennett has ordered the accused to find bail in the sum of $3,000 to appear for trial at the Superior Court, to be holden in this city on the 4th Tuesday of January next.—Tribune.

From the Providence Chronicle, Oct. 21.
ARREST OF DORR IN RHODE ISLAND.

CHRONICLE OFFICE 4 1/4 o'clock Mr. DORR IN PROVIDENCE.—Mr. Thos. W.
Dorr arrived in Providence this afternoon, and proceeded at once to the City Hotel. He entered that house about two o'clock, accompanied by one or two of his friends, and proceeded at once to the register, where he recorded his name. He then went over to the house of Col. Simons the editor of the Herald, (who lives opposite) where we understand he is dining.

We understand Mr. Dorr came to the city with the intention of remaining, and therefore expects to be arrested.

Since writing the above, Mr. Dorr has been arrested. He was arrested by Mr. deputy sheriff Porter, accompanied by Mr. Chaffee, and two or three other police officers.

The officers proceeded to Col. Simons' house, where Mr. Dorr was passing the afternoon with a party of his friends. There were a few people gathered about the door as the officers came up, and before Mr. Dorr came out, the number slightly increased.

Mr. Potter went into Col. Simons' House, proceeded up stairs. He was received by Mr. Dorr with a smile, who learned his errand, (which we presume he must have guessed,) at once told him he was ready to go with him. The party then came down stairs, Mr. Potter leading, and got into a carriage which had been drawn up before the door, the spectators having somewhat increased in numbers since the Sheriff entered, but there being not the slightest excitement.

The carriage drove to the State Prison, where Mr.
Dorr remains at least for the present. He looks uncommonly well, and bore himself, as he got into the carriage, with considerable dignity. The party drove off from the door, Mr. Dorr and Mr.
Potter the sheriff, talking pleasantly together.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—A Difficulty Anticipated.—The law requires that members of the House of Representatives shall be elected by single districts, yet New Hampshire, Missouri, Georgia, and Mississippi have elected their several delegations by General ticket. A question will no doubt arise as to the right of these members to a seat in the House.

MARRIED

In Benson, Oct. 31, by Rev. C. H. Kent, Mr.
William Brownson, of Sunderland, to Miss Naomi G. Barber, daughter of Roswell Barber, Esq.
Also, in East Whitehall, on the same day, by the same, Mr. E. L. Barber of Benson to Miss Jane E.
Adams, of East Whitehall.

DIED.

In this Village on the 28th ult. Mr. Benjamin Whitney, aged 65. Printers in N. Y. are requested.
In Chittenden, on the 28th ult., Willard C. Sabo adopted son of Thomas and Amos Baird aged 20 years.

On board a canal boat near Syracuse N. Y., on the 5th ult. Betsey C., wife of Francis Denison, formerly of Castleton Vt.

Her disease was consumption; she had visited New England, hoping to improve her health, and was on her return home, when her disease terminated her earthly career. Her last moments were characterized by calmness, and bright assurance of future happiness. She did not suppose herself dangerous, till about twenty minutes before her death.
When asked how she felt, she said, happy. When she saw her friends weeping, she in a firm tone assured them, that if they saw what she saw, they would not weep. She sent her adoration to the Presbyterian Church of this place of which she was a member, and also to her friends; and soon said, I am going, good bye, I am in glory, and without a single struggle her spirit fled. Her remains were brought to and interred at this place.
